Investment Objective

The Fund invests substantially all of its assets in the abrdn Real Estate Fund which is currently undergoing a portfolio transition to (i) reduce its holdings to approximately 45% in direct UK property, and (ii) increase its holdings to approximately 45% in indirect property.

The transition commenced on 2 October 2024 and is expected to be completed within 18-24 months however, the transition may take longer due to the illiquid nature of property assets and varying market conditions.

Potential investors should be aware that, for a period from 2 October 2024, investments in both direct and indirect holdings in the abrdn Real Estate Fund will not align with the target allocations of 45% as stated in the investment policy.

Investment Policy

- The fund may invest in cash and assets that can be turned into cash quickly.

Management Process

- In respect of the direct property component the management team use their discretion (active management) to identify investments that are expected to benefit from changes in property prices and property improvements. They will maintain a diverse asset mix at sector level.

- In respect of the indirect property component the management team use their discretion to maintain a diverse mix at country and company level. Their primary focus is on company selection using research techniques to select individual holdings. The research is focused on identifying companies the management team believe will increase in value and which align with their views regarding future economic and business conditions.

- Due to the active nature of the management process, the fund's performance profile may deviate significantly from that of the composite benchmark.

Please note: Selling property can be a lengthy process so investors in the fund should be aware that, in certain circumstances, they may not be able to sell their investment when they want to.

Derivatives and Techniques

The fund is not expected to invest in derivatives directly however the abrdn UK Real Estate Fund may use derivatives as set out below:

- The fund may use derivatives to reduce risk, reduce cost and/or generate additional income or growth consistent with the risk profile of the fund

- Where derivatives are used, this would typically be to maintain allocations following a significant inflow into the fund, or to manage currency risk.

- Derivatives are linked to the value of other assets. In other words, they derive their price from one or more underlying asset.

Investors in the fund may buy and sell shares on any dealing day (as defined in the Prospectus).

If you invest in income shares, income from investments in the fund will be paid out to you. If you invest in accumulation shares, income will be added to the value of your shares.

Recommendation: the Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within five years. Investors should satisfy themselves that their attitude to risk aligns with the risk profile of this fund before investing.

RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

- Property Transaction Charges - Property transaction charges are higher than those which apply in other asset classes. Investors should be aware that a high volume of transactions would have a material impact on fund returns.
- Single Swinging Price Risk - The fund employs a single swinging pricing methodology to protect against the dilution impact of transaction costs. Due to the high transaction charges associated with the fund's assets, a change in the pricing basis will result in a significant movement in the fund's published price.
- Property Liquidity Risk - Property is less liquid than other asset classes. Selling property can be a lengthy process so investors in the fund should be aware that they may not be able to sell their investment when they want to.
- Property Valuation Risk - Property valuation is subjective and based on the judgment of an independent valuer, it is therefore a matter of the valuer's opinion rather than fact.

All investment involves risk. This fund offers no guarantee against loss or that the fund's objective will be attained.

The price of assets and the income from them may go down as well as up and cannot be guaranteed; an investor may receive back less than their original investment.

Inflation reduces the buying power of your investment and income.

The value of assets held in the fund may rise and fall as a result of exchange rate fluctuations.

The fund could lose money if an entity (counterparty) with which it does business becomes unwilling or unable to honour its obligations to the fund.

In extreme market conditions some securities may become hard to value or sell at a desired price. This could affect the fund's ability to meet redemptions in a timely manner.

The fund could lose money as the result of a failure or delay in operational processes and systems including but not limited to third party providers failing or going into administration.
